Expungement of criminal records of persons convicted of possession or use of cannabis

8. (1) Where a court has convicted a person of a contravention of —
- (a) section 2(b) of the Abuse of Dependence-producing Substances and Rehabilitation Centres Act, 1971 (Act No. 41 of 1971), in that the person used or possessed the dependence-producing drug or plant of cannabis (dagga);
  - (b) section 4(b) of the Drugs and Drug Trafficking Act, 1992 (Act No. 140 of 1992), in that the person used or possessed the undesirable dependence-producing substance of cannabis (dagga); or
  - (c) any law of the former Republics of Transkei, Bophuthatswana, Ciskei or Venda, or of any former self-governing territory, as provided for in the Self-governing Territories Constitution Act, 1971 (Act No. 21 of 1971), before the commencement of the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, 1993 (Act No. 200 of 1993), that criminalised the use or possession of cannabis (dagga), the criminal record, containing the conviction and sentence in question, of that person in respect of that offence must be expunged automatically by the Criminal Record Centre of the South African Police Service.

(2) Where the criminal record of a person referred to in subsection (1) has not been expunged automatically as provided for in that subsection, the criminal record of that person must, on his or her written application to the Director-General: Justice and Constitutional Development, in the prescribed form and manner, be expunged.

(3) The Director-General: Justice and Constitutional Development must, on receipt of the written application of an applicant referred to in subsection (2), issue a prescribed certificate of expungement, directing that the conviction and sentence of the person be expunged, if the Director-General is satisfied that the person complies with the criteria set out in subsection (1).

(4) An applicant to whom a certificate of expungement has been issued as provided for in subsection (3) must, in the prescribed manner, submit the certificate to the head of the Criminal Record Centre of the South African Police Service, to be dealt with in accordance with subsection (5).

(5) (a) The head of the Criminal Record Centre of the South African Police Service or a senior person or person at the rank of Director or above, employed at the Centre, who has or have been authorised, in writing, by the head of the Centre to do so, must expunge the criminal record of a person if he or she is furnished by the applicant with a certificate of expungement as provided for in subsection (3).

(b) The head of the Criminal Record Centre of the South African Police Service must, on the written request of an applicant, in writing, confirm that the criminal record of the person has been expunged.

(6) Where the Director-General: Justice and Constitutional Development, in terms of subsection (3), has issued a certificate of expungement, and it subsequently appears that the applicant did not qualify for the expungement of his or her criminal record, the Director-General must—

- (a) inform the applicant in writing of the information that has come to his or her attention and that he or she intends to revoke the certificate of expungement;
- (b) afford the applicant an opportunity to furnish compelling written reasons to him or her within 90 working days after he or she is informed of the intention to revoke, why his or her record should remain expunged;
- (c) inform the applicant in writing within 30 working days after a decision is made of—
  - (i) his or her decision; and
  - (ii) the reasons for revoking the certificate of expungement; and
- (d) inform the head of the Criminal Record Centre of the South African Police Service, in writing within 14 working days after the decision was made, to revoke the certificate of expungement and to reinstate the convictions and sentences in question.

(7) If the applicant fails to furnish compelling reasons contemplated in subsection (6)(b), the Director-General may, subject to the Promotion of Administrative Justice Act, 2000 (Act No. 2 of 2000), revoke the certificate of expungement.

(8) (a) The Director-General: Justice and Constitutional Development may delegate any power or assign any duty conferred upon or assigned to him or her in terms of subsection (3) or (6) to an appropriately qualified official in the employ of the Department of Justice and Constitutional Development at the rank of Deputy Director-General.

(b) A delegation or assignment in terms of paragraph (a)—

- (i) is subject to any limitation, condition and direction which the Director-General may impose;
- (ii) must be in writing; and
- (iii) does not divest the Director-General of the responsibility concerning the exercise of the power or the performance of the duty.

(c) The Director-General may—

- (i) confirm, vary or revoke any decision taken in consequence of a delegation or assignment in terms of this subsection, subject to any rights that may have accrued to a person as a result of the decision; and
- (ii) at any time withdraw a delegation or assignment.

Regulations

9. (1) The Minister must make regulations to prescribe—

- (a) the manner of measuring immature cannabis plants and seedlings as contemplated in section 1;
- (b) the requirements or standards regarding the cultivation of cannabis plants in a private place for personal use as contemplated in section 3(2)(b);
- (c) the requirements or standards regarding the storing of cannabis as contemplated in section 4(3)(b);
- (d) the requirements or standards regarding the transportation of cannabis as contemplated in section 4(6);
- (e) the distance from a window of, ventilation inlet of, doorway to or entrance into another place as contemplated in section 5(4)(a);

- (f) the form on which a person's written application for the expungement of his or her criminal record must be made, as provided for in section 8(2);
- (g) the certificate of expungement to be issued by the Director-General: Justice and Constitutional Development as provided for in section 8(3); and
- (h) the manner in which the Director-General must submit certificates of expungement that have been issued, to the head of the Criminal Record Centre of the South African Police Service, as provided for in section 8(4).

(2) The Minister may make regulations to prescribe—

- (a) the places where cannabis may not be consumed as contemplated in section 5(5);
- (b) the manner in which cannabis plants or cannabis in excess of the prescribed quantity must be disposed of; and
- (c) any other matter which is necessary or expedient to achieve the objects of this Act.

(3) Regulations made in terms of subsection (2)(b) and (c), may prescribe penalties for any contravention thereof or failure to comply therewith, not exceeding a fine or imprisonment for a period of six months or both a fine and such imprisonment.
